71st Rhododendron Festival At Roan Mountain State Park

Arts, Crafts, Food and Entertainment!!!

The Roan Mountain Citizens Club will be hosting the 71st Annual Rhododendron Festival at Roan Mountain State Park on June 17 and 18th. The admission for the festival is free to the public and will take place from 10:00 am until 5:00 pm daily.

During this years Rhododendron Festival the Citizens Club will feature newly designed t-shirts for sale. This years design was inspired by the adventures Roan Mountain has to offer. Tennessee has many different aspects from mountains, outdoor activities, southern hospitality, and country music to name a few. To enjoy every aspect of Tennessee one only needs to visit Roan Mountain. Roan Mountain is a unique area of Tennessee that can revive the sole with just one adventure. This years festival will have new music acts along with handcrafted items and festival foods from returning vendors along with new vendors. We invite you to come and enjoy the beautiful area and entertainment your Roan Mountain adventure will have!
